

Detection of parkinson's disease using Machine Learning

Rahul is a 52 years old teacher who finds difficult to write on board as his hands shiver a lot needs to find a right treatment for his problem.

Sunil is a retired old man who loses balance while going for walks needs to find the reason behind his problem for trouble free walking.

Anita is a singer who had been experiencing some undesirable voice changes in recent days wants to find a remedy to carry on with her profession.

Johnny is a boxer who had been experiencing some stiffness in muscles finds difficult to stretch his arms and needs to find remedy to fight his opponents.

Sarath is a manager who is suffering from numbness in one arm needs to find a way to relieve and be active again.